The "Fairlanes & Devilles" have been performing 50's & 60's Rock N' Roll in mid lower Michigan for over 20 years now. Some of the Fairlane members got their start back in the early 70's with another local group "Half Ton Pick Up" which disbanded in the mid 90's. We're proud & excited to be returning again this year! So put on your bobby socks Baby and roll up your old blue jeans!

Ross Mead and North Country is a modern country band headquartered in central Michigan. The band consists of seasoned musicians with over a century of combined experience. Rock, soul and twang in equal measure.

Playing the modern country hits with a few surprises, the band is equally adept at intimate ballads as they are with heavy rockers.
